Workflow Solutions Customized to an Evolving Industry

As the publishing industry continues to demand technology solutions to streamline workflows, integrate with reference resources and third-party platforms to deliver publications in multiple formats, Westchester is here to help you meet those demands. Possessing expertise in alt-text creation, accessible ePubs, web PDFs, POD, journal, and traditional print workflows, Westchester works with our clients to develop customized solutions based on the unique needs of their projects. Our technical acumen, combined with decades of pre-press experience, provides publishers with valuable time and cost savings in bringing their publications to market.

Westchester Publishing Services was founded in 1969 and is a trusted partner to the publishing industry, with an expanding array of editorial, composition, design, and digital conversion services. We proudly support hundreds of clients in trade publishing, university press, academic publishing, industry trade publishing, and policy group spaces among others, including Macmillan, Union Square, Harvard University Press, The MIT Press, Sourcebooks, Edward Elgar Publishing, and more.
